To Whom It May Concern,

I write this professional statement as a Certified Public Accountant to establish the business details of BeachE Carts LLC for permitting requirements.

BeachE Carts LLC received its Florida Limited Liability Company status through legal registration at the Florida Division of Corporations on March 13, 2025. BeachE Carts LLC operates and belongs to Joseph Ginem from their Fort Lauderdale, Florida base.

The company BeachE Carts LLC exists within its first year of operation while being currently established in the pre-operational stage. The company has not launched business operations nor earned revenue. The company does not provide financial statements because it exists in its initial year without commercial operations.

City of Fort Lauderdale requested this confirmation while BeachE Carts LLC seeks business permitting. Formal financial documentation is not suitable for this business since it operates at an early stage. The business stands as valid though it remains in operational development mode.

You may reach out to me if you need extra information about the business status of BeachE Carts LLC.

Sincerely,

John Weldon
