NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA:

SECTION 1. The foregoing "WHEREAS" clauses are hereby ratified and confirmed as being true and correct and are hereby made a specific part of these Ordinances.

SECTION 2. That Section 47-13.20 entitled "Downtown RAC Review Process and Special Regulations" of the City of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Unified Land Development Regulations ("ULDR") is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 47-13.20. - Downtown RAC review process and special regulations.

- A. Applicability. The following regulations shall apply to those uses permitted within the Downtown RAC district, as shown on the List of Permitted and Conditional Uses, Sections 47-13.10 to 47-13.14.

CODING: Words, symbols, and letters ~~stricken~~ are deletions; words, symbols, and letters underlined are additions.

D. Development Permit, Density, Effective Date of Approval of Existing Site Plans.

1. Density within the Downtown Regional Activity Center zoning districts is limited in accordance with the number of units as provided in the City of Fort Lauderdale adopted Comprehensive Plan, as amended from time to time, and as per Section 47-28. of the ULDR, Flexibility Rules, or compliance with Broward County Land Use Plan Policy 2.16.4. and Section 47-23.16. of the ULDR, Affordable Housing Regulations, and any other applicable provisions in the Unified Land Development Regulations. Density may be increased as provided for in the City's Comprehensive Plan.
2. With exception to the TDR Program in Section 47-36.1, dwelling units are allocated at the time of development permit approval. Upon expiration of a development permit the dwelling units shall be returned to the density pool for future allocation.
3. For the purposes of the TDR program in Section 47-36.1, Comprehensive Plan Future Land Use (FLU) category density pool units may be allocated from a sending site to a receiving site in perpetuity with the approval and recordation of a Certificate of Transfer in accordance with meeting all requirements under Section 47-36.1.
4. The allocation of dwelling units shall be subject to all applicable provisions of the ULDR at the time of development permit approval. Dwelling units are allocated on a first come, first serve basis.
5. Density in the RAC-TMU District and RAC-RPO District.
 - a. All development within the TMU (RAC-EMU, RAC-SMU and RAC-WMU) district that is greater in density than twenty-five (25) dwelling units per net acre shall be eligible to apply for additional dwelling units subject to the following. Such approval shall be based upon consideration of the number of additional dwelling units available under the City's Comprehensive Plan, the number of additional dwelling units requested, the impact of the proposed development on abutting residential areas, the proposed residential density of the proposed development, location of the proposed development, sensitivity to adjacent development of the site design and proposed orientation of the proposed development, including proposed setbacks, pedestrian movements associated with the proposed development, proposed landscaping, and traffic and parking impacts of the proposed development on the transportation network. Approval for allocation of any additional dwelling units, hotel rooms or both, for multifamily dwellings, hotels and mixed-use developments shall conform to the City's Comprehensive Plan and may be granted subject to approval of a Site Plan Level II permit, subject to the considerations for such review as prescribed above. A minimum setback of twenty (20) feet from all property lines for every building used exclusively for residential purposes may be required. Such minimum setback may also be required for mixed use buildings in which residential use exceeds fifty-nine percent (59%) of the total floor area, exclusive of parking garages.

CODING: Words, symbols, and letters ~~stricken~~ are deletions; words, symbols, and letters underlined are additions.

- b. All development within the RAC-RPO district that is greater in density than thirty-five (35) dwelling units per net acre ~~and~~
 - i. Up to fifty (50) dwelling units per net acre shall be reviewed subject to the requirements of Section 47-24.3., Conditional Use; or
 - ii. Up to fifty (50) dwelling units per net acre for the purposes of the Transfer of Development Rights (TDR) program may be allocated from a sending site to a receiving site in accordance with meeting all requirements under Section 47-36.1.
- 6. A development permit requesting the allocation of flex and reserve units shall comply with Section 47-28.1, Flexibility Rules. Density may be increased through the allocation of bonus density provisions for affordable housing or sleeping rooms and shall comply with provisions on limitation as outlined in the City's Comprehensive Plan.
- 7. Effective date. The development permit shall not take effect until the 30-day city commission request for review has expired. Effective date shall be the 30-day expiration, or the day of city commission action.
- 8. Existing Site Plans in DRAC. Development applications received and pending review by the city or approved by the city on or before November 5, 2020, may be approved, amended, or modified through the use of provisions of the zoning regulations in effect at the time the approved application or application pending review was submitted.

F. Certificate of eligibility.

1. Application for certificate of eligibility. An application for a certificate of eligibility must be submitted for a proposed sending site to the DSD, prior to the submission of an application for a certificate of transfer for the same property. The application must include the following information and the applicant must pay all the required fees at the applicant's own expense:
 - a. Name, address, telephone number of applicant or authorized representative for applicant; and
 - b. If the applicant is not the owner, a notarized letter from all the owners of the proposed sending site authorizing the applicant to apply for a certificate of eligibility on all of the owners' behalf; and
 - c. Proof of ownership (deed) of the property proposed as a sending site; and

- d. Legal description of the property proposed as a sending site from Broward County Official Records; and
 - e. Existing land use designation of the property proposed as a sending site; and
 - f. Existing zoning of the property proposed as a sending site; and
 - g. Calculations of the development rights of the proposed sending site; and
 - h. Floor plans of the proposed sending site signed and sealed by an architect or engineer licensed to practice in the State of Florida, if applying to transfer non-designated floor area; and
 - i. A current signed and sealed property survey of the property proposed as a sending site (dated no later than six (6) months prior to the date of submission of the certificate of eligibility application), ~~which is signed and sealed by a licensed professional surveyor, authorized to engage in the practice of surveying and mapping in the State of Florida in accordance with Chapter 472, Florida Statutes, as amended;~~ and
 - j. Resolution designating the property (proposed as a sending site) as either a historic landmark, landmark site, or archaeological site, if applicable; and
 - k. A copy of a resolution passed by the city commission or historic preservation board adopting the most recent applicable architectural resource survey that identifies the proposed sending site as a "contributing property" located within a historic district, if applicable; ~~and~~
 - ~~l. A narrative must be provided by the applicant explaining how the criteria in Section 47-36.1.F.3. of the ULDR are met.~~
2. Calculation of available development rights from sending site.
- a. Development rights. Unused development rights that may be transferred to a receiving site must be calculated as follows:
 - i. Floor area. Existing gross floor area of the sending site will be subtracted from the calculation of permitted gross floor area of the sending site per the ULDR incorporating setbacks, stepbacks, FAR, and all other requirements. The applicant shall submit calculations for the development rights along with signed and sealed floor plans to the DSD.

- ii. Density. Unused ~~density~~ residential dwelling units on a sending site may be transferred to a receiving site rounding down to the nearest whole number. Total available ~~density~~ residential dwelling units is based upon the ~~gross~~ net acreage of the entire site.

- a) Available ~~density~~ residential dwelling units will be the calculation of the maximum residential dwelling units permitted on the sending site subtracted by the number of existing or already built residential dwelling units on the sending site.

- b) For zoning districts that have a density which is calculated using a pool of units the maximum density shall be calculated using a maximum FAR of three (3) multiplied by the net acreage of the parcel, then divided by an average unit size of (725) square feet which will provide the total density. The total density will be subtracted by the total number of existing residential dwelling units to identify the number of residential dwelling units available for transfer. ~~The conversion of existing hotel units to residential units for the purposes of the density TDR calculation shall be the difference between the number of permitted residential units divided by the number of permitted hotel units as specified in the ULDR per each zoning district for the sending site. This number will be multiplied by the difference between the number of permitted hotel units and the number of existing hotel units.~~

~~1. For zoning districts in the Central Beach Regional Activity Center that do not have maximum density, the maximum density shall be capped at forty-eight (48) residential units per acre and ninety (90) hotel units per acre.~~

- b. Partially designated properties. If a sending site has been partially designated as a landmark, landmark site, or archaeological site, only the designated portion of the property may be included in the calculation of floor area or density that may be transferred to a receiving site. If only a building or structure is designated as a historic landmark and not any portion of the site, it is not eligible for TDRs.

3. Criteria for certificate of eligibility. An application for certificate of eligibility must meet the following criteria:
- a. The applicant must provide a complete application with all required documentation as outlined in Section 47-36.1.F. ~~of the ULDR~~; and
 - b. The proposed sending site must be located within a sending area in accordance with Section 47-36.1.C. ~~of the ULDR~~; and
 - c. The development rights of the proposed sending site must be correctly calculated and meet the requirements of the most recently adopted ULDR and Comprehensive Plan.
 - d. The Proposed Sending Site must not be restricted by any covenant, easement, or deed restriction that prohibits the development or use of any unused residential dwelling units or unused floor area at the Sending Site.
 - e. A sending site applying for a certificate of eligibility as an eligible historic resource may be issued a certificate of eligibility and will be subject to the following conditions:
 - i. Prior to applying for a certificate of transfer, the eligible historic resource must be designated as a landmark, landmark site, or archaeological site in accordance with Section 47-24.11.C. ~~of the ULDR~~; or
 - ii. If the eligible historic resource is located within a potential historic district, the district must be designated by the city commission prior to the submission of an application for a certificate of transfer and the eligible historic resource must be identified as a "contributing property" in the most recent applicable architectural resource survey adopted by the city commission or the historic preservation board that identifies the proposed sending site as a "contributing property" located within a historic district.
4. Application review process.
- a. Determination of application completeness. The DSD shall determine within thirty (30) days of the application submittal whether the application is complete and shall notify the applicant of any missing documentation or additional information requested by the DSD in writing.

- b. If an applicant fails to provide additional information as requested in writing by the DSD within thirty (30) days of the request, the application shall be deemed withdrawn.
 - c. The DSD shall review the application and determine whether the application meets the criteria as provided in Section 47-36.1.F.
 - d. If the DSD determines that the application meets the criteria for a certificate of eligibility as provided in Section 47-36.1.F., the DSD shall approve the application and the ~~historic preservation planner~~DSD shall issue a certificate of eligibility.
 - e. If the DSD determines that the application does not meet the criteria as provided in this Section 47-36.1.F., the DSD shall deny the application and the ~~historic preservation planner~~DSD shall issue a letter of denial to the applicant.
5. A certificate of eligibility will expire ~~eighteen~~twenty-four (18~~24~~) months) after issuance and may not be relied upon for determining development rights. An expired certificate of eligibility may not be included in an application for a certificate of transfer.
- a. The Applicant may apply for a Renewal of a Certificate of Eligibility for the Sending Site at least thirty (30) days prior to its expiration by filing an Application for a Renewal of the Certificate of Eligibility at the DSD.
 - b. A renewal will be issued by the DSD unless the property no longer meets the criteria found within Section 47-36.4., the property is altered with a modification in gross floor area, if residential units have been removed or added, or if there has been a change in the zoning district of the property. If the property has been altered with a modification in gross floor area, if residential units have been removed or added, or if the zoning district has been changed, a new Certificate of Eligibility will be required. A Renewal Certificate of Eligibility will expire twenty-four (24) months after issuance.
6. Appeal of an application for a certificate of eligibility. If an application for a certificate of eligibility is denied, the applicant may file an appeal in accordance with Section 47-26B~~the following procedure:~~

- a. ~~The applicant must file an appeal no later than thirty (30) days after the date of the letter of denial.~~
- b. ~~The applicant must include all of the following documents in its appeal:~~
 - i. ~~A letter addressed to the city clerk and to the director of the DSD requesting an appeal. The letter must include the case number, applicant's name, address, and phone number, property owner(s)'s name, address, and phone number, date of denial, and must specify the grounds for the appeal; and~~
 - ii. ~~If the applicant is not the owner, a notarized letter from all of the owners of each property authorizing the applicant to appeal the application for a certificate of eligibility on all of the owners' behalf; and~~
 - iii. ~~All documents and papers submitted to the city prior to the denial of the application, letter of denial, and the application. The applicant must provide these documents at their own expense.~~
- c. ~~Other than the documents required in Section 47-36.1.F.6.b. of the ULDR, any other documents submitted by the applicant after the DSD issued its denial, will not be made a part of the record on appeal.~~
- d. ~~Upon receipt of an appeal, the director of the DSD or his or her designee shall compile the record consisting of the documents and papers submitted by the applicant, the application, and schedule the appeal for a planning and zoning board meeting within sixty (60) days.~~
- e. ~~The director of the DSD or his or her designee shall transmit the record to the planning and zoning board.~~
