

INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT

THIS INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT, effective as of _____ 20 __, is made and entered into by and between the City of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, a municipal corporation (hereinafter referred to as “CITY” or “the CITY”) and the Fort Lauderdale Community Redevelopment Agency, a special district created pursuant to Chapter 163, Part III, Florida Statutes, (hereinafter referred to as “CRA”).

WHEREAS, by enactment of Ordinance C-95-67 on December 5, 1995, the City Commission of the City of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, created a community redevelopment trust fund for the Northwest-Progresso-Flagler Heights Community Redevelopment Area (“NPF Area” or “NPF CRA”) as authorized by Section 163.387, Florida Statutes; and

WHEREAS, the City Commission adopted a community redevelopment plan for the NPF Area pursuant to Resolution No. 95-170 adopted on November 7, 1995, as amended by Resolution No. 01-86 adopted on May 15, 2001, as amended by Resolution No. 02-183 adopted on November 5, 2002, as amended in 2013 by Resolution No. 13-137, as amended by Resolution No. 16-52 adopted on March 15, 2016 by the City Commission, as amended by Resolution No. 18-226 adopted on October 23, 2018 (the “NPF Plan”); and

WHEREAS, the NPF Plan seeks to eliminate “slum and blight”, to encourage the development of affordable housing, both rental and for sale units, and other community development activities; and

WHEREAS, the City, pursuant to its Home Rule Powers under Florida Statute, Section, 166.021 and the Florida constitution seeks to encourage the development of affordable housing, seeks to create, develop or rehabilitate facilities for recreational, cultural or sporting events, to provide for the general welfare of the public; to improve its water, sewer and other utilities infrastructure, to increase ad tax valorem revenue and to provide other municipal services; and

WHEREAS, the CITY and the CRA are keenly interested in maintaining and revitalizing the NPF Area as visibly attractive, economically viable, and socially desirable areas of the CITY; and

WHEREAS, Florida Statute, Section 163.400 permits public bodies to enter into cooperative agreements to achieve mutually beneficial goals and objectives; and

WHEREAS, CRA is willing to provide funding from its Trust Fund to accomplish certain mutually beneficial goals and objectives, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners finds that the proposed projects described herein comply with NPF Plans;

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the City finds that the proposed projects constitute a public purpose; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and conditions contained in this Agreement and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is acknowledged, CITY and CRA agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

PREAMBLE

In order to establish the background, context and frame of reference for this Agreement and to generally express the objectives and intentions of the respective parties herein, the following statements, representations and explanations shall be accepted as predicates for the undertakings and commitments included within the provisions which follow and may be relied upon by the parties as essential elements of the mutual considerations upon which this Agreement is based.

1.1 Recitals. That each WHEREAS clause set forth above is true and correct and incorporated in this Agreement by this reference.

ARTICLE 2

FUNDING

2.1 For the projects described in Exhibit “A”, the CRA agrees to provide funding for the following projects, transactions and/or community development activity (“Projects”) described in Exhibit “A” provided such projects are located within the geographical boundaries of the NPF Area. Funding shall be provided when the transaction closes or when a contract to perform the services, labor or materials is executed for the Projects. The City shall follow its procurement policy and procedures on City controlled and City initiated projects and activities.

2.2 The CRA and City finds that these Projects meet the goals and objectives of the NPF Plan and constitutes a public purpose and the City is authorized to approve these Projects under its home rule powers.

2.3. Both parties represent to the other that this Agreement has been duly approved by the City Commission and the Board of Commissioners of the CRA and this Agreement constitutes a legal and binding agreement of the parties enforceable in accordance with its terms.

ARTICLE 3

METHOD OF PAYMENT

3.1 Payment to CITY. CRA will provide the funding to the CITY, directly to third parties, or in the manner selected by the City in its sole and absolute discretion, from its Trust Fund, to the extent funds of the NPF CRA are budgeted and available and eligible for payment in accordance with Section 163.387(6), Florida Statutes.

3.2 Method of Payment. The parties agree that the CRA's obligation to provide funding to the CITY pursuant to Section 3.1 hereinabove shall be made to CITY, directly to other parties or in the manner selected by the City in its sole and absolute discretion in accordance with the approved budget for the NPF CRA.

3.3 Annual Statement and Payment. The CITY shall prepare and present to the CRA an annual statement of funding needs for the proposed projects described in Exhibit A for the fiscal year in question in order to effectively administer and complete the projects. The annual statement shall reflect current year anticipated Project expenditures and disbursements and all unpaid obligations from prior periods. Any amounts contained in the approved NPF CRA budget for payment to CITY or directly to third parties, in the sole and absolute discretion of the City, shall be paid by the CRA prior to sunset of the NPF CRA. Nothing herein shall preclude extension of this CRA obligation upon approval of an amendment to this Agreement as authorized by law.

ARTICLE 4

MISCELLANEOUS

4.1 Continued Cooperation. This Agreement assumes the close coordination and cooperation between the CRA and essential CITY to effectively administer and implement the Projects.

4.2 Term and Termination.

4.2.1 Term. This Agreement shall take effect as of the Effective Date set forth in the Preamble and shall continue in effect through the sunset of the CRA, unless either party seeks to renegotiate or terminate this Agreement prior to said expiration date.

4.3. Public Records. Each party shall maintain its own respective records and documents associated with this Agreement in accordance with the records retention requirements applicable to public records. Each party shall be responsible for compliance with any public documents request served upon it pursuant to Chapter 119, Florida Statutes, as same may be amended from time to time and any resultant award of attorney's fees for non-compliance with that law.

The City and CRA and all contractors or subcontractors (the “Contractor”) engaging in services in connection with construction, operation and/or maintenance of activities under the Plan shall:

(a) Keep and maintain public records that ordinarily and necessarily would be required by either party in order to perform the services rendered.

(b) Upon request from either party’s custodian of public records, shall provide the other with a copy of the requested records or allow the records to be inspected or copied within a reasonable time at a cost that does not exceed the cost provided in Chapter 119, Florida Statutes (2016), as may be amended or revised, or as otherwise provided by law.

(c) Ensure that public records that are exempt or confidential and exempt from public records disclosure requirements are not disclosed except as authorized by law and as to either party for the duration of this Agreement and as to Contractor’s for the duration of the contract term and following completion of said contract if Contractor does not transfer the records to the appropriate party.

(d) Upon completion of said construction, operation or maintenance of the activities under the Plan, transfer, at no cost, to the other party all public records in possession of said party or Contractor or keep and maintain public records required by either party to perform the service. If Contractor transfers all public records to the appropriate party upon completion of the construction, operation or maintenance of the activities under the Plan, the Contractor shall destroy any duplicate public records that are exempt or confidential and exempt from public records disclosure requirements. If the Contractor keeps and maintains public records upon completion of construction, operation or maintenance of the activities under the Plan, the Contractor shall meet all applicable requirements for retaining public records. All records stored electronically must be provided to either the CRA or the City, upon request from the other party’s custodian of public records, in a format that is compatible with the information technology systems of the other party.

If either party or any contractor has questions regarding the application of Chapter 119, Florida Statutes, to either party or Contractor’s duty to provide public records relating to its contract, contact the City’s custodian of public records by telephone at 954-828-5002 or by e-mail at PRRCONTRACT@FORTLAUDERDALE.GOV or by mail at 100 North Andrews Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301 Attention: Custodian of Public Records.

4.4 Sovereign immunity. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to affect the rights, privileges and immunities of the CITY or CRA as set forth in Section 768.28, Florida Statutes.

4.5 Independent Contractor. The CITY is an independent contractor under this Agreement.

4.6 Assignments and Amendments.

4.6.1 Assignment. This Agreement or any interest herein, shall not be assigned, transferred or otherwise encumbered, under any circumstances, by CRA or CITY, without the prior written consent of the other party.

4.6.2 Amendment. It is further agreed that no modification, amendment or alteration in the terms or conditions contained herein shall be effective unless contained in a written document executed by both parties with the same formality as this Agreement.

4.7 Notice. Whenever any party desires to give notice unto any other party, it must be given by written notice, sent by registered United States mail, with return receipt requested, or by hand-delivery with a written receipt of delivery, addressed to the party for whom it is intended and the remaining party, at the place last specified, and the places for giving of notice shall remain such until they shall have been changed by written notice in compliance with the provisions of this Article.
