Surreal Beauty

Contrast in color, art & design

How can we create a mural that fits in the area, creates awe, adds life and color to the atmosphere, and be seen as an opportunity for a picture? - And lets not forget: it must allow itself to grow into something bigger that can take over the bridge/walkway for what could possibly be a larger mural.

Betta fish and Hibiscus was my solution.

A bright and happy color palette will be used for the background, hinting the idea of everything that Florida – and in this case, the Westin Hotel – is all about: color, life and fun in the sun.
