

JTA Fleet Management Services, LLC

The presented financials relate to an automotive sales and service company that is attempting to expand into fleet services. $750,000 of seed money has been placed on the books in this preliminary effort to expand. The corporate structure is untested given the newness of the entity. Until the company engages in the delivery of actual services, it is difficult to determine whether its capitalization is adequate.