5	Presentation on the Historical Nature of North Fork Elementary	Commissioners Beasley-Pittman and Glassman requested a representative from a historical society to educate the City Commission on the historical nature or significance of the North Fork Elementary site, which is located in City Commission District 3. Also include information regarding value of the property.	01/26/2026 - An LTC is underway regarding this item. City staff inquired with City Archaeology Consultant Matt DeFelice to request an archaeology review of North Fork Elementary School located at 101 NW 15th Avenue. City staff also requested for the consultant to provide the potential for archaeological findings as well as what would be required related to archaeology testing and/or monitoring if there were future redevelopment of the parcel. The Consultant provided a letter stating there is potential for the site to contain intact archaeological deposits. The property contains elements of previously recorded Florida Master Site File archaeological site 8BD2915 / Annie Tommie Camp (Seminole) and is in proximity (< 300 feet) to Florida Master Site File archaeological site 8BD2906 / Seminole Burial Ground (FMSF 2025). The property is likely to contain site 8BD2915 / Annie Tommie Camp and possibly portions of site 8BD2906 / Seminole Burial Ground. Future development of the property is likely to have an adverse effect on these resources and prior to any ground disturbances an intensive archaeological survey (Phase 1b-Phase II) should be completed. The results of that survey should inform whether additional archaeological work is recommended or required.	In Progress	1/6/2026
