Detailed event description (include activities, entertainment, vendors, etc

The Ft. Lauderdale "Stand-Up For The Pets" paddle board event will raise awareness for inoculating, spaying and neutering Broward County pets that are in need of treatment but are unable to see a Veterinarian due to limited financial resources. Stand-Up For A Cause will provide those treatments to owners of animals in Broward County - at no charge. Pet owners will have to opportunity to register their pets for free veterinary treatment.

The October 26, 2013 Stand-Up For The Pets flat-water event will be held on the Middle River at George English Park. The day will begin with paddleboard classes and clinics, with tips and demonstrations from Florida's top paddleboard professionals. Christine Murphy from Train 4 Life will demonstrate how to yoga on a paddle board, and give a full class of stretching, exercises and yoga poses that participants can practice from their paddle boards in the calm lagoon at George English Park. Pro paddle board racing athletes like Cristina Boeri will give a class on race training and advanced paddle boarding techniques to teach aspiring paddle board racers the skills and strategies used by the pros.

Paddlers and (paddlers with their Pets) can then join the pack for a 90-minute float down the Middle River, with pet owners, their pets, and all others. This 2.6 mile scenic course will guide paddlers through the canals of Ft. Lauderdale to discover the local ecosystem, and the many beautiful homes along the waterway.
