One Stop Shop Unsolicited Proposal Analysis - (Commission District 2)

Mayor Trantalis commented on Ernst & Young's (EY) One Stop Shop Evaluation Report (Report) received by the Commission.

In response to Mayor Trantalis' questions, City Auditor John Herbst provided an overview of the unbranded Report and explained details related to the Report's disclaimer information. Further comment and discussion ensued.

In response to Commissioner Glassman's questions, City Auditor Herbst discussed the City's Master Agreement with EY and said a task order was issued for the Report. City Auditor Herbst explained the Report's timeline and remarked on EY's evaluations of other City projects, including the water treatment plant proposals. He commented on EY's recently implemented risk mitigation policy relative to the Report. Further comment and discussion ensued on prior EY evaluations of City projects.

Commissioner Glassman noted his concerns with the information included in the Report. He pointed out the areas of concern, the need to do better and cited examples.

In response to Commissioner Glassman's questions, City Auditor Herbst said One Stop Shop, LLC (Applicant) paid the fee for the Report and explained EY's scope of work that included an analysis of business models, financial information and areas of risk to the City. A number of items were brought to the attention of City Manager Lagerbloom and City Attorney Boileau.

Commissioner Glassman remarked on additional aspects of the Report and said he considered requesting a deferral of this discussion. He commented on the Report's finding that the City was not receiving adequate compensation, other items discussed in the Report and explained concerns.

In response to Commissioner Glassman's question, City Attorney Boileau noted details related to Report delays. Further comment and discussion ensued.

Mayor Trantalis recognized Stephanie Toothaker, Esq., on behalf of the Applicant, Damn Good Hospitality (Applicant). Ms. Toothaker explained the Applicant's efforts to communicate with EY.

In response to Commissioner Glassman's question, City Manager Lagerbloom said the City received the One Stop Shop unsolicited proposal in June 2020.

Commissioner Sorensen said he shared Commissioner Glassman's concerns.

In response to Commissioner Sorensen's questions, City Auditor Herbst reviewed details associated with EY's plan to present the Report to the Commission at this meeting but received word from their Risk Compliance Team that they were unable to present. The draft report was received a week prior and that is when the Applicant responded. He discussed the draft Report and revisions, which included comments from the Office of the City Attorney. Substantive revisions to the Report required it to be returned to the EY's internal quality review process.

City Auditor Herbst remarked on his viewpoint that the Report contains valid, important points for Commission consideration.

Mayor Trantalis commented on the Report and its use as a basis for a Commission decision. City Auditor Herbst concurred on concerns related to the timeliness of the Report and recommended a deferral to allow a thorough review of the Report. He confirmed the willingness of EY's audit staff to meet with each Commission Member individually to review the Report, discuss details and answer questions regarding its conclusions. Further comment and discussion ensued on presenting the Report in a public forum.

In response to Commissioner Glassman's question, City Auditor Herbst confirmed collaborative efforts relative to the Report with the Finance Department Director and EY. Further comment and discussion ensued.

In response to Commissioner Sorensen's question, City Auditor Herbst said the Report was not intended to be branded by EY, and said he was not aware of recent policy changes implemented by EY's risk mitigation group. Further comment and discussion ensued.

Vice Mayor Moraitis remarked on the Report's analysis of the annual rent, the ability to analyze the cost, the ongoing conceptual design development and its anticipated completion date to allow a financial analysis of the project.

In response to Vice Mayor Moraitis' question regarding completion of conceptual design development, Ms. Toothaker explained aspects of the unsolicited proposal process. The comprehensive agreement precedes the development of the site plan. The Report addressed an analysis of the Applicant's business plan.

The Report was provided to the Commission and added to the Agenda item back-up prior to the meeting.

Vice Mayor Moraitis commented on the process, analyzing the unsolicited proposal before completing the site plan and the Commission's ability to discontinue the unsolicited proposal.

Ms. Toothaker remarked on the Report's analysis of the Applicant's business plan and commented on costs associated with the development process.

Vice Mayor Moraitis reviewed the Report's opinion regarding business operations, the number of events produced annually and project construction funding. Ms. Toothaker discussed the number of events produced annually by the Applicant.

Vice Mayor Moraitis noted details of the Applicant's financing included in the Report, the business model and construction loan. Further comment and discussion ensued.

In response to Vice Mayor Moraitis' questions, City Auditor Herbst commented that the pay down period is atypical and explained related details and cited examples. Further comment and discussion ensued.

In response to Vice Mayor Moraitis' question, Ms. Toothaker confirmed the Report assumptions and extrapolations are inaccurate. Ms. Toothaker said information in the Report did not come from the Applicant.

Commissioner Glassman noted inaccuracies included in the Report. Further comment ensued.

In response to Commissioner Glassman's question regarding Staff's progress on the comprehensive agreement, City Attorney Boileau provided an update and discussed details related to the Report. Aspects of the comprehensive agreement would be negotiated with the Applicant.

City Auditor Herbst noted challenges related to Staff analyzing the Applicant's financial and business model due to ongoing modifications. Further comment and discussion ensued.

Vice Mayor Moraitis noted the state statute which dictates the process for an unsolicited proposal and remarked that requesting an evaluation may have been premature. Further comment and discussion ensued regarding the work performed by City Auditor Herbst and the Audit Staff, the Report addressing the value of the project and the land, and whether the Applicant would adequately compensate the City.

Commissioner Glassman remarked on the Report and providing a financial analysis to advise whether the Applicant could successfully implement the project and the adequacy of the City's licensing fee. He reiterated concerns related to the Report.

Vice Mayor Moraitis discussed her philosophy, preferring this public land undergo a Request for Proposal (RFP) process. She explained her perspective and noted the benefits of having a preliminary study to determine the best use of the property. Vice Mayor Moraitis remarked on moving forward and developing a comprehensive agreement, followed by City Auditor Herbst analyzing the Applicant's financial information and business model.

Commissioner Sorensen remarked on his expectation that the Report would analyze the viability of the Applicant's business plan. He suggested another entity determine its viability. Further comment and discussion ensued on moving forward and developing a comprehensive agreement.

Mayor Trantalis recognized Larry Forman, 410 NW 1st Avenue. Mr. Forman discussed his perspective and details contained in the Report. Further comment and discussion ensued.

Mayor Trantalis recognized Mary Fertig, 511 Poinciana Drive. Ms. Fertig discussed her recommendations regarding the Report and remarked on related concerns. Further comment and discussion ensued.

Mayor Trantalis recognized Maggie Hunt, 1307 SW 4th Court. Ms. Hunt concurred with Vice Mayor Moraitis' perspective regarding the preference for an RFP process to determine the type of project needed. She recommended utilizing the RFP process. Further comment and discussion ensued.

Vice Mayor Moraitis discussed her efforts toward considering a park for the One Stop Shop site and explained related details.

In response to Mayor Trantalis' question regarding Commission options moving forward, City Attorney Boileau said Staff needs Commission direction regarding analyzing the Applicant's business plan and related items.

Mayor Trantalis requested City Auditor Herbst, City Manager Lagerbloom and City Attorney Boileau and their respective Staff work together to provide the Commission with a financial analysis of the unsolicited proposal and recommendations. The analysis would be based on current information and the asset's value.

City Auditor Herbst explained challenges related to completing a financial analysis because a portion of the acreage would be used as a passive park. Further comment and discussion ensued.

City Auditor Herbst confirmed he would work with Colliers International, the City's real estate consultant, to determine a market rate and a range of annual rent. Further comment and discussion ensued on analyzing the Applicant's business model.

ADJOURNMENT

Mayor Trantalis adjourned the meeting at 2:19 p.m.
