

2022 AMENDMENT TO INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT PROVIDING FOR DIVISION AND DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROCEEDS FROM THE BROWARD COUNTY ADDITIONAL THREE-CENT LOCAL OPTION GAS TAX ON MOTOR FUEL

This 2022 Amendment to Interlocal Agreement ("2022 Amendment") is entered into by and between Broward County, a political subdivision of the State of Florida ("County"), and the municipalities executing a signature page bearing the above legend, each of which is a municipal corporation existing under the laws of the State of Florida, (each a "Municipality" and, collectively "Municipalities"). County and Municipalities are collectively referred to as the "Parties."

RECITALS

A. Section 336.025(1)(b), Florida Statutes, authorizes the County to extend the levy of the additional three-cent local option gas tax upon every gallon of motor fuel sold in Broward County for a period not to exceed thirty (30) years on a majority vote of the governing body of the County.

B. The Broward County Board of County Commissioners enacted Section 31½-38, Broward County Code of Ordinances, effective January 1, 1994, through December 31, 2024, pursuant to Section 336.025(1)(b), Florida Statutes, imposing the levy of the three-cent ($.03) local option fuel tax for thirty (30) years and providing for a method of distribution of the proceeds of the tax.

C. The method for distribution of the proceeds is established by an Interlocal Agreement with Municipalities representing a majority of the population of the incorporated area within the County ("Interlocal Agreement").

D. Paragraph 3 of the Interlocal Agreement requires annual adjustment of the division and distribution of the proceeds based upon the population of the individual Municipalities and unincorporated Broward County in accordance with the population figures set forth in the most current edition of "Florida Estimates of Population," published by the Bureau of Economics and Business Research, Population Division, University of Florida ("BEBR Figures").

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, and pursuant to the authorization of Section 336.025(1)(b)2., Florida Statutes, the County and Municipalities agree as follows:

1. Paragraph 2 of the Interlocal Agreement, as previously amended, is hereby amended to read:
2. Forty-eight and Seventy-three One-hundredths percent (48.73%) of the total proceeds from the additional three-cent local option fuel tax shall be divided and distributed to the County, and the remaining Fifty-one and Twenty-seven One-hundredths percent (51.27%) of the total proceeds from the additional three-cent local option fuel tax shall be divided among and distributed to the eligible municipalities within the County as follows:

2. Paragraph 3 of the Interlocal Agreement, as previously amended, is hereby amended to read:

3. The population figures set out herein are based on the figures contained in the document referred to as the "Florida Estimates of Population," published on an annual basis by the Bureau of Economics and Business Research, Population Division, University of Florida. The population figures to be utilized in the formula described in Paragraph 2 of this Interlocal Agreement for the division and distribution of the proceeds from the additional three-cent local option fuel tax shall be adjusted annually based on the then-current "Florida Estimates of Population."

For the purpose of this Agreement, the population figures are as follows:

3. This 2022 Amendment shall be effective as of the date it is executed by the County after having previously been executed by Municipalities cumulatively representing a majority of the incorporated area population of the County. The amended population figures and share of proceeds shall take effect as provided by applicable law.

4. In the event any provision within this 2022 Amendment is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the remaining provisions shall continue to be effective unless the County or any executing Municipality necessary to maintain the cumulative majority referenced in the preceding paragraph elects to terminate the Interlocal Agreement. The election to terminate pursuant to this provision must be made within seven (7) days after such court ruling; provided, however, that if a timely notice appealing the court ruling is filed, the election shall be held in abeyance until the appeal is determined or dismissed.

5. Except to the extent amended, the Interlocal Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this 2022 Amendment and the Interlocal Agreement, as previously amended, the Parties acknowledge that this 2022 Amendment shall control.

6. This 2022 Amendment may be executed in several counterparts, each of which so executed shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have made and executed this 2022 Amendment to the Interlocal Agreement on the respective dates under each signature: Broward County through its Board of County Commissioners, signing by and through its County Administrator, authorized to execute same by Board action on April 5th, 2022, and each Municipality, signing by and through the official indicated on each signature page, duly authorized to execute same.

2022 AMENDMENT TO INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT PROVIDING FOR DIVISION AND DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROCEEDS FROM THE BROWARD COUNTY ADDITIONAL FIFTH-CENT LOCAL OPTION GAS TAX ON MOTOR FUEL FOR TRANSIT

This 2022 Amendment to Interlocal Agreement ("2022 Amendment") is entered into by and between Broward County, a political subdivision of the State of Florida ("County"), and the municipalities executing a signature page bearing the above legend, each of which is a municipal corporation existing under the laws of the State of Florida (each a "Municipality" and, collectively "Municipalities") County and Municipalities are collectively referred to as the "Parties."

RECITALS

A. Section 336.025(1)(b), Florida Statutes, authorizes the counties to extend the levy of the additional fifth-cent local option gas tax upon every gallon of motor fuel sold in Broward County for a period not to exceed thirty (30) years on a majority vote of the governing body of the County.

B. On June 13, 2000, the Broward County Board of County Commissioners enacted Ordinance No. 2000-25, effective January 1, 2001, through December 31, 2031, pursuant to Section 336.025(1)(b), Florida Statutes, extending the levy of the additional fifth-cent local option gas tax for thirty (30) years and providing for a method of distribution of the proceeds of the tax.

C. The method for distribution of the proceeds is established by an Interlocal Agreement with Municipalities representing a majority of the population of the incorporated area within the County ("Interlocal Agreement").

D. Paragraph 4 of the Interlocal Agreement requires annual adjustment of the division and distribution of the proceeds based upon the population of the individual Municipalities and unincorporated Broward County utilizing the population figures set forth in the most current edition of "Florida Estimates of Population," published by the Bureau of Economics and Business Research, Population Division, University of Florida ("BEBR Figures").

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, and pursuant to Section 336.025(1)(b), Florida Statutes, the County and Municipalities agree as follows:

1. Section 2.1 of the Interlocal Agreement, as previously amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

2.1 Seventy-four percent (74%) of the total proceeds from the additional fifth-cent local option gas tax shall be distributed to the County. The remaining twenty-six percent (26%) shall be distributed to the eligible municipalities in the County as follows:

The population figures set forth above are based on the figures contained in the document referred to as the "Florida Estimates of Population," published on an annual basis by the Bureau of Economic and Business Research, Population Division, of the University of Florida. The population figures to be utilized in the formula described in this section for the distribution of the additional fifth-cent local option gas tax shall be adjusted annually based on the current Florida Estimates of Population.

2. This 2022 Amendment shall be effective as of the date it is executed by the County after having previously been executed by the Municipalities cumulatively representing a majority of the incorporated area population of the County. The amended population figures and share of proceeds shall take effect as provided by applicable law.

3. In the event any provision within this 2022 Amendment is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the remaining provisions shall continue to be effective unless the County or any executing Municipality necessary to maintain the cumulative majority referenced in the preceding paragraph elects to terminate the Interlocal Agreement. The election to terminate pursuant to this provision must be made within seven (7) days after such court ruling; provided, however, that if a timely notice appealing the court ruling is filed, the election shall be held in abeyance until the appeal is determined or dismissed.

4. Except to the extent amended, the Interlocal Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this 2022 Amendment and the Interlocal Agreement, as previously amended, the Parties acknowledge that this 2022 Amendment shall control.
