ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

Under Pressure

The first quarter was marked by losses across most public asset classes as market participants focused on inflation and geopolitical tensions. This was seen most broadly in equities, represented by the MSCI World Index, which lost 5.7%.

The invasion of Ukraine by Russian forces was the catalyst for a swift change in the global economic outlook. Prior to the incursion, economists broadly had lukewarm to positive feelings about the economic landscape, barring the inflation outlook. Positivity was short-lived as cost pressures mounted. Advance estimates of Q1 2022 GDP from the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis decreased at an annual rate of 1.4%

The inflationary pressures being felt at the tail end of last year have been exacerbated. The Federal Reserve which had recently changed its language on inflation from “transitory” to “elevated”, is now at risk of falling behind. It now must walk the tightrope of raising interest rates to fight inflation, while also trying to avoid a severe economic slowdown. The overarching problem of inflation may be largely out of their control, however.

The unprecedented financial sanctions put on Russia and the resulting distress in one of the most commodity-rich regions globally has thrown global supply chains (still recovering from COVID-related pains) into disarray. With this as the backdrop, the number of projected interest rate hikes has decreased by nearly half.

Russia is a top-ten global producer of many commodities which include: palladium, gold, silver, nickel, iron, tin, copper, zinc, uranium, and, most importantly, oil. Russia is the third-largest producer of oil worldwide and provides roughly 10% of the global supply. The other metals are used as key materials in goods ranging from automobiles to consumer electronics. Increases in the price of these base metals are being fed through the market as higher costs to the consumer.

Cost pressures did ease near the end of the quarter, boosting equity markets from their year-to-date lows.

DOMESTIC EQUITIES

Slamming Brakes

U.S. equities, as measured by the Russell 3000, lost 5.3% in the first quarter. Using the S&P 500 as a proxy, large capitalization companies lost 4.6%. These losses were sustained broadly. Out of the eleven market sectors, only Energy and Utilities had positive returns. Energy stocks were buoyed by rising oil prices and increased visibility into capital return policies. Utilities were seen as a risk-off sector in a more challenging market environment. Information Technology, which had previously led the market, was the second worst performing sector, down 8.4%.

These same dynamics were seen in the outperformance in the Value style, relative to Growth, across all market capitalizations. Value-styled benchmarks have a higher allocation to Energy and lower allocation to Information Technology. The relative outperformance was between 8% and 10%.

Large capitalization companies were more broadly insulated from the downturn than their smaller counterparts. Using Russell indices as a proxy: small-capitalization companies lost 7.5%, relative to the 5.1% loss sustained by their larger counterparts.

Quality and dividends seemed to be the only factors that held up companies in the first quarter. The S&P 500 Low Volatility and Dow Jones U.S. Select Dividend indices both gained 5.3%.

INTERNATIONAL EQUITIES

War Impacts

International markets broadly fell in the first quarter. The MSCI All Country World ex. US index, which broadly tracks the global market excluding the United States, lost 5.3%. Sentiment turned sharply lower as investors weighed the economic and human implications of Russia's invasion of Ukraine.

In developed markets, the MSCI EAFE lost 5.8%. Of the 21 constituent countries in the index, 17 had negative returns. Four of the five largest countries by weighting: Japan, France, and Switzerland, and Germany each lost more than 7.1%. These countries represent more than 50% of the index. One bright spot was seen in the United Kingdom, the second largest country by weighting. Equities in the United Kingdom rose slightly (+0.7%) acting as a bulwark to further index losses.

Emerging markets lost 6.9% in the quarter. This poor performance masked broad country strength within the index. Of the 25 countries that were in the index at the start of the quarter only seven ended with negative returns. On March 2nd, MSCI removed Russian equities from its indices citing suitability and investability concerns. Russian equities were broadly marked to zero. The other negative returns were seen in China, India, South Korea, Taiwan, Egypt, Poland, and Hungary. These countries account for nearly 80% of total index assets.

BOND MARKET

Worst Quarterly Return

Fixed income markets performed poorly in the first quarter as interest rates rose globally. Bonds performed well at the beginning of the quarter as market participants rotated to safety.

By the end of the quarter the focus was on inflation that is high and still rising. Out of the 49 fixed income indices that we track, all were negative.

The Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Index, an index that tracks the broad investable US fixed income market, lost 5.9%. This was the worst quarterly return since record keeping began in 1973.

Global bonds, using the Bloomberg Global Aggregate as a proxy, performed worse than their U.S. counterparts, losing 6.2%.

Floating bonds and inflation linked securities were the best performers, though they also sustained losses.

Shorter term bonds performed better than their longer-term counterparts. This was most stark within Gov/Credit benchmarks. 1-3 Gov Credit lost 3.5%, while Long Gov/Credit lost 11.0%.

The return outlook for fixed income, especially on a real basis, remains low.

CASH EQUIVALENTS

Low and Lower

The three-month T-Bill returned -0.08% for the first quarter. This is the 57th quarter in a row that return has been less than 75 basis points and the fourth where the return was negative.

Return expectations for cash continue to be low. Cash equivalents are unlikely to provide positive real returns in the foreseeable future.

INVESTMENT RETURN

On March 31st, 2022, the Fort Lauderdale General Employees' Retirement System's Copeland Capital Management Small Cap Dividend Growth portfolio was valued at $25,902,206, a decrease of $1,416,776 from the December ending value of $27,318,982. Last quarter, the account recorded total net withdrawals of $19 in addition to $1,416,757 in net investment losses. The fund's net investment loss was a result of income receipts totaling $123,586 and realized and unrealized capital losses totaling $1,540,343.

RELATIVE PERFORMANCE

Total Fund

During the first quarter, the Copeland Capital Management Small Cap Dividend Growth portfolio lost 5.2%, which was 7.4% greater than the Russell 2000 Growth Index's return of -12.6% and ranked in the 2nd percentile of the Small Cap Growth universe. Over the trailing year, the portfolio returned 5.3%, which was 19.6% greater than the benchmark's -14.3% performance, and ranked in the 3rd percentile. Since September 2017, the account returned 12.2% per annum and ranked in the 75th percentile. For comparison, the Russell 2000 Growth returned an annualized 9.0% over the same time frame.

ASSET ALLOCATION

At the end of the first quarter, small cap equities comprised 97.6% of the total portfolio ($25.3 million), while cash & equivalents comprised the remaining 2.4% ($625,320).

EQUITY ANALYSIS

Last quarter, the Copeland portfolio was invested in all eleven industry sectors included in our data analysis. Relative to the Russell 2000 Growth index, the portfolio was overweight in the Communication Services, Energy, Financials, Industrials, and Real Estate sectors, and underweight in the Health Care, Consumer Discretionary, and Information Technology sectors.

During a volatile quarter, the Copeland portfolio found large excess sector returns from key sectors to offset broad based market underperformance. Most notably the Communication Services, Health Care, and Utilities sectors eked out modest gains compared to the benchmark's losses. Industrials – the portfolio's heaviest sector position – outperformed as well, contracting slightly. Energy was a headwind, as the overweight sector missed out on even larger returns from the index.

INVESTMENT RETURN

On March 31st, 2022, the Fort Lauderdale General Employees' Retirement System's DePrince, Race & Zollo Large Cap Value portfolio was valued at $62,486,429, a decrease of $1,658,888 from the December ending value of $64,145,317. Last quarter, the account recorded total net withdrawals of $1,600,000 in addition to $58,888 in net investment losses. The fund's net investment loss was a result of income receipts totaling $408,808 and realized and unrealized capital losses totaling $467,696.

RELATIVE PERFORMANCE

Total Fund

During the first quarter, the DePrince, Race & Zollo Large Cap Value portfolio lost 0.1%, which was 0.6% greater than the Russell 1000 Value Index's return of -0.7% and ranked in the 43rd percentile of the Large Cap Value universe. Over the trailing year, the portfolio returned 13.7%, which was 2.0% greater than the benchmark's 11.7% performance, and ranked in the 45th percentile. Since September 2004, the account returned 9.4% per annum. For comparison, the Russell 1000 Value returned an annualized 8.6% over the same time frame.

ASSET ALLOCATION

At the end of the first quarter, large cap equities comprised 99.7% of the total portfolio ($62.3 million), while cash & equivalents comprised the remaining 0.3% ($212,902).

EQUITY ANALYSIS

Last quarter, the DR&Z portfolio was diversified across all eleven industry sectors in our analysis. Relative to the Russell 1000 Value index, the portfolio was overweight in the Consumer Discretionary, Consumer Staples, Industrials, and Materials sectors, while underweight in Communication Services, Financials, Health Care, Information Technology, Real Estate, and Utilities.

Overweights to the Consumer Discretionary and Materials sectors had offsetting allocation effects, as Consumer Discretionary stocks led the market on the downside while Industrials gained. Consumer Staples was weaker, yielding losses compared to the benchmark's gain. Materials was the second highest returning sector last quarter, and the portfolio's overweight boosted relative performance despite selection weakness.

INVESTMENT RETURN

On March 31st, 2022, the Fort Lauderdale General Employees' Retirement System's Kayne Anderson Rudnick Investment Management Small Cap Sustainable Growth portfolio was valued at $28,688,978, a decrease of $4,861,551 from the December ending value of $33,550,529. Last quarter, the account recorded total net withdrawals of $1,908 in addition to $4,859,643 in net investment losses. The fund's net investment loss was a result of income receipts totaling $21,129 and realized and unrealized capital losses totaling $4,880,772.

RELATIVE PERFORMANCE

Total Fund

During the first quarter, the Kayne Anderson Rudnick Investment Management Small Cap Sustainable Growth portfolio lost 14.5%, which was 1.9% less than the Russell 2000 Growth Index's return of -12.6% and ranked in the 68th percentile of the Small Cap Growth universe. Over the trailing year, the portfolio returned -7.9%, which was 6.4% greater than the benchmark's -14.3% performance, and ranked in the 55th percentile. Since September 2017, the account returned 19.5% per annum and ranked in the 14th percentile. For comparison, the Russell 2000 Growth returned an annualized 9.0% over the same time frame.

ASSET ALLOCATION

At the end of the first quarter, small cap equities comprised 96.4% of the total portfolio ($27.7 million), while cash & equivalents comprised the remaining 3.6% ($1.0 million).

EQUITY ANALYSIS

Last quarter, the Kayne Anderson Rudnick portfolio was invested in seven of the eleven industry sectors in our analysis. Relative to the Russell 2000 Growth index, the portfolio was overweight in the Communication Services, Financials, and Information Technology sectors, while holding smaller allocations to Health Care and Industrials. Energy, Materials, Real Estate, and Utilities were not invested.

The portfolio's emphasis on Communication Services, Financials, and Information Technology failed in the first quarter, as stock selections posted steep negative returns in all three sectors. Consumer Discretionary and Industrials underperformed as well. Finally, without exposure to the Energy or Materials sectors, which produced gains in the first quarter amidst declining markets, the portfolio found no relief.
