If any part of the Premises shall be taken as aforesaid, and such partial taking shall render that portion not so taken unsuitable for the business of Tenant, as determined by Landlord and Tenant, then this lease shall cease and terminate as aforesaid. If such partial taking is not extensive enough to render the Premises unsuitable for business of Tenant, then this Lease shall continue in effect except that the minimum rent shall be reduced in the same proportion that the floor area of the Premises taken bears to the original floor area demised and Landlord shall, upon receipt of the condemnation award, make all necessary repairs or alterations to the Office Building in which the Premises are located so as to constitute the portion of the Office Building not taken a complete architectural unit, but such work shall not exceed the scope of the work to be done by Landlord originally constructing said Office Building, nor shall Landlord in any event be required to spend for such work an amount in excess of the amount received by Landlord as damages for the part of the Premises so taken. "Amount received by Landlord" shall mean that part of the condemnation award which is free and clear to Landlord of any collection of mortgages for the value of the diminished fee. If more than twenty percent of the floor area of the Office Building in which the Premises are located shall be taken as aforesaid, Landlord may, by written notice to Tenant, terminate this Lease, upon 30 days written notice. All damages awarded for such taking shall belong to Landlord whether such damages shall be awarded as compensation for diminution in value to the leasehold or to the fee of the Premises, provided, however, that Landlord shall not be entitled to any portion of the award made to Tenant for cost of removal of stock and fixtures.

Article 11 – Damage to the Office Building

Section 1. If the Premises shall be damaged by fire, the elements or other insured casualty not due to Tenants negligence or action but are not thereby rendered untenable in whole or in part, Landlord shall promptly at its own expense, to the extent of available insurance proceeds from landlord Policies, cause such damage to be repaired within one- hundred eighty (180) days, and the rent shall be abated for that portion of the Premises which is tenable. If by reason of such occurrence, the Premises shall be rendered untenable only in part, Landlord shall promptly, at its own expense, to the extent of available insurance proceeds from Landlord policies cause the damage to be repaired within one-hundred eighty (180) days, and the Base Rent shall be abated in proportion to the portion of the Premises rendered untenable. If the Premises shall be rendered wholly untenable by reason of such occurrence, Landlord shall promptly, at its own expense, to the extent of available insurance proceeds, cause such damage to be repaired and the minimum rent shall be abated in whole; provided however, that Landlord in its sole judgment, for any reason, shall have the right to be exercised by notice in writing, to elect not to reconstruct the destroyed Premises, and in such event this Lease and the tenancy hereby created shall cease as of the said occurrence, the minimum rent to be adjusted as of such date. Said notice shall be given within one hundred and twenty (120) days of said occurrence. Landlord's obligations as to restoration as provided in this Section shall be as to the shell, framework, partition, fixtures and structure of the Office Center, electrical, plumbing, and other systems up to the Premises, but not within the leased Premises. Landlord's obligation to repair and rebuild, as described in this section, is only effective provided that damage and destruction is not due to Tenant's negligence, omissions, or wrongful malfeasance or misfeasance of Tenant, its agents, servants, employees, licensees, visitors, customers, patrons or invitees.

Section 3. It is agreed that if the Tenant abandons possession of the rental unit during the term of this Lease, or is lawfully evicted by the Landlord, then the Landlord may, at its sole option, re-take possession of the rental unit and make good faith effort to re-rent it for the Tenant's account. But such re-taking of possession shall not constitute a rescission of this Lease nor a surrender of the leasehold estate.

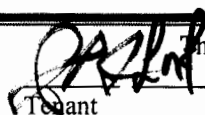

Section 4. In the event Tenant remains in possession of the Premises after the expiration of this Lease and without the execution of a new lease, Tenant shall be deemed a Tenant from month to month only if allowed by the Landlord, subject to all the conditions of this Lease except that the monthly rental shall be one hundred and twenty five (125%) then current monthly rent.

If Landlord defaults in the performance of any of the terms, provisions, covenants and conditions of this Lease and by reason of such default, Tenant employs the services of an attorney or accountant to enforce performance of the covenants or to perform any service based upon default, then in any of said events, Tenant shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees (including paralegal and similar support personnel), expert's fees, all court costs and accountant's fees, and all expenses and all fees and costs incurred by Tenant's staff pertaining to such matters (including costs and fees relating to any appeal) and in enforcement of any remedy.

Section 6. Tenant waives its rights to a trial by jury on any and all matters in any civil action commenced by or against Tenant concerning this Lease or the Premises. If there are any facts or allegations that need to be tried in a court of law, every position of said trial will be before the court without jury.

Section 7. In the event any personal property of Tenant remains on the Premises upon Tenant's vacating of same, whether such vacating is voluntary or the result of eviction proceedings, such property shall be deemed abandoned by Tenant and shall become the property of Landlord. Thereafter, Landlord may make any use of said property as Landlord deems convenient and in no event shall Landlord be required to account to Tenant for any use or benefit of the property. Tenant shall be responsible for all costs associated with removal of Tenant's property.
