- CP-3    19-0200       Motion to Approve Agreement for Financial Advisory Services - PFM Financial Advisors LLC - $37,500 plus debt issue fees
- Commissioner Glassman commented on the process, ranking, communications and other concerns. In response to Commissioner Glassman's questions, Jodi Hart, Chief Procurement Officer, explained the threshold amount of the guaranteed rate is the determining factor for items coming before the Commission. Due to the fact that bonds may impact this item and cause it to exceed the threshold, it was brought before the Commission. Ms. Hart expounded on details regarding notification of Commission approval, posting of a new notice of intent to award and the ability to appeal.

Commissioner Glassman requested input on the selected vendor, Public Financial Management Financial Advisors (PFM) due to their representation of Broward County and the Broward County School Board. Kurt Buffington, Director of Finance, discussed efforts to ensure there would be no conflict.

In response to Commissioner Glassman's additional questions regarding PFM, Mr. Buffington suggested representatives of the vendor, PFM address.

Mayor Trantalis recognized Ed Stull, Managing Director - Masterson Advisors LLC (Masterson). Mr. Stull expounded on the fiduciary role of financial advisors. He commented on PFM's response to the Request for Proposals (RFP). Further comment and discussion ensued on this topic. In response to Commissioner Glassman's question, Mr. Stull explained details regarding Masterson's inquiries and communications to Staff regarding the RFP and details relating to the approval process. Further comment ensued.

Mayor Trantalis recognized David Moore, Managing Director Southern Region - PFM. Mr. Moore confirmed there is no conflict, expounding on related details and citing examples. In response to Vice Mayor Sorensen's question about an ongoing contract between PFM and Broward County, Mr. Moore explained Broward County's process, expounding on details. He confirmed that any responses to the County would first be vetted with the City. PFM would work exclusively with the City if there is a "gray" area.

In response to Mayor Trantalis's question, City Auditor John Herbst commented on his business experience with Mr. Stull and conversations with him regarding this item. He also commented on subsequent conversations with Staff regarding this item being presented to the Commission. City Auditor Herbst noted this is a Commission policy decision, commenting on details. City Manager Chris Lagerbloom discussed providing adequate written assurances. City Auditor Herbst discussed philosophical concerns, confirming it meets the legal standard.

In response to Mayor Trantalis' question, Mr. Buffington discussed aspects of the ranking process and the importance of PFM's depth of experience, expounding on the importance of their back-office support for a bond issuance. He acknowledged the positive reputation of Mr. Stull, noting the recent formation of Masterson. Commissioner Moraitis commented on her understanding of the extensive experience of Masterson's advisors. Further comment and discussion ensued on the evaluation of all aspects of each firm for criteria ranking and critical importance of back-office support.

In response to Vice Sorensen's question, Linda Logan-Short, Interim Assistant City Manager and CFO, confirmed she was a member of the Selection Committee. She explained the evaluation process, expounding on details. Ms. Logan-Short confirmed the expertise of financial advisor professionals at Masterson, concurring with Mr. Buffington's comments regarding PFM's back-office proficiency. Further comment and discussion ensued on the Selection Committee's consideration and vendor ranking.

Commissioner Glassman made a motion to approve this item and was seconded by Commissioner McKinzie.
