

We have the majority of our work going on in the green boxes and are trying to ensure safety for our participants crossing the street between the two locations.