Tenant acknowledges that it has relied solely on its own independent inspection and evaluation of the Premises in making the determination to execute this Lease;

b. will pay the Rent at the times and in the manner provided in this Lease;

c. will not use or commit the Premises to be used for any purpose which is unlawful, dangerous, or hazardous or is in violation of any applicable legal, governmental or quasi-governmental requirement, ordinance or rule (including the Board of Fire Underwriters);

d. will not permit the storage or disposal of any hazardous substances (other than de minimus quantities used, stored, delivered, generated and disposed of in strict accordance with Applicable Law in non-reportable quantities and without the need for a license or permit) in or about the Premises.

- (i) If Tenant desires to assign this Lease or enter into any sublease of the Premises, Tenant shall deliver written notice of such intent to Landlord, together with a copy of the proposed assignment or sublease at least fifteen (15) days prior to the effective date of the proposed assignment or commencement of the term of the proposed sublease. Any approved sublease shall be expressly subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

JB

- (ii) In the event of any approved sublease or assignment, Tenant shall not be released or discharged from any liability, whether past, present or future, under this Lease.

- (v) Upon the occurrence of a breach of this Lease beyond any applicable notice and opportunity-to-cure period, if the Premises or any part thereof are then assigned or sublet, Landlord, in addition to any other remedies herein provided, may, at its option collect directly from such assignee or subtenant all rents becoming due to Tenant under such assignment or sublease and apply such rent against any sums due to it by Tenant hereunder and no such collection shall be construed to constitute a novation or release of Tenant from the further performance of its obligation hereunder.
- (vi) With reservation of all rights under Article VII, Section 10, Pledging Credit, Florida Constitution (1968), and further subject to conditions and limitations set forth in Fla. Stat. Landlord acknowledges that Tenant maintains within the Premises personal and confidential information pertaining to its patients which Tenant may secure in its file storage and which Landlord agrees not to open.

k. will upon the expiration or termination of the Lease Term, immediately and without demand, quietly and peaceably deliver up the possession of the Premises in a clean, good, and tenantable condition, reasonable wear and tear and casualty loss excepted.

l. will take, or join with Landlord in taking, all reasonable measures to conserve energy used in operation of the Premises.

7. COVENANTS OF LANDLORD.

a. Landlord warrants and represents that it has the right to lease the Premises for the Lease Term on the terms and conditions contained herein, and, to the best of Landlord's knowledge and belief, without independent inquiry, the Building complies with the applicable local building code and complies with the Americans With Disabilities Act ("ADA"). Upon commencement of the Lease, Landlord's contractor shall warrant all Tenant build-out, such as electrical and plumbing systems previously installed in the Premises.

b. Any alterations to the Premises as well as all Tenant Repairs shall be constructed by Tenant using due diligence once work has commenced and shall continue to completion in a good and workmanlike manner.

b. Notwithstanding the forgoing to the contrary, Landlord shall make all necessary repairs and undertake all maintenance and replacement to the structural portion of the Premises, including the elevator, the exterior walls, roof and foundation, unless caused by the gross negligence of Tenant ("Landlord Repairs").

- (i) To the extent plumbing and electrical system facilities serve more than the Premises, they shall be considered a "Landlord Repair". Landlord is responsible for repairs and/or replacement of HVAC associated with normal wear and tear. Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, in no event shall fixtures and equipment physically located within the confines of the Premises be deemed to be Landlord Repairs.
- (ii) If Landlord does not make reasonably necessary Landlord Repairs, Tenant may not make the repairs and offset the cost against Rent, it being agreed that Tenant's obligations to pay Rent are independent of each and every other provision of this Lease.
- (iii) All requests for Landlord Repairs must be made in writing to Landlord and Landlord shall have no obligation to make Landlord Repairs until it actually receives written notice from Tenant of the need therefor.
- (v) Landlord may (but shall not be obligated to) make any Tenant Repairs if Tenant fails to do so and charge Tenant for the reasonable cost of repairs, provided that Landlord shall first give reasonable notice to Tenant (excepting emergency or exigent circumstances), including Landlord's estimate of the cost of such repairs.

10. LANDLORD IMPROVEMENTS. Landlord shall ensure all electrical, mechanical, and plumbing is in good working condition at the commencement of the Lease. Other than stated herein, the Premises shall be in "As Is" Condition.

The Rules are intended and shall be construed to supplement and not limit or restrict in any way any of Landlord's rights or Tenant's obligations contained in this Lease.

b. Landlord Not Obligated To Enforce. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed to impose upon Landlord any duty or obligation to enforce any of the Rules or the terms, covenants or conditions of any other lease against any other tenant or any other person.

c. Additional Rules. Landlord shall have the continuing right (but not the obligation) to make and adopt Rules, in addition to or as an amendment to the Rules from time to time existing for the use, entry, operation or management of the Premises or the Building or for the protection or welfare of the Building or its tenants or occupants, or any property therein, as Landlord may reasonably determine, and Tenant agrees to accept, abide by and comply with all such lawful Rules as if they were set forth herein.

12. CASUALTY INSURANCE.

a. At Tenant's reasonable expense, Landlord shall maintain such fire and extended coverage insurance on the Premises as well as Landlord coverage for general liability for the Premises as it may from time to time deem appropriate in its reasonable discretion, with such policy to include a waiver of subrogation clause as provided below. As Operating Expenses, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the associated premiums for such fire and extended coverage insurance.

b. Lessee/City is a Florida municipal corporation and is self-insured entitled to all the benefits and protection provided by § 768.28, Florida Statutes, as same may be amended from time to time. Lessee agrees to notify Lessor of amendments to § 768.28, Florida Statutes as they occur. Notice of all and any claims Lessor might have against Lessee shall be made immediately upon Lessee/City. Lessee/City shall process all such claims pursuant to § 768.28, Florida Statutes, as same may be amended from time to time and in accordance with all other applicable laws and ordinances. With respect to workers' compensation, comprehensive general liability, including personal injury and property damage, Lessee/City is self-insured pursuant to the provisions of § 768.28 (16), Florida Statutes, (2019). To the extent Lessee/City fails to remain self-insured in any of the above referenced areas, then Lessee/City agrees to purchase at its own expense and to keep in force during the term of this Lease such policy or policies of workers' compensation and comprehensive general liability insurance, including personal injury and property damage, with contractual liability endorsement, in the amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) per occurrence and Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) aggregate for incidents occurring in, on or about the Premises for which Lessee/City fails to remain self-insured. Said policies shall: (i) name Lessor as an additional insured and insure Lessor's contingent liability under this Lease (except for the workers' compensation policy, which shall instead include waiver of subrogation endorsement in favor of Lessor), (ii) be issued by an insurance company which is acceptable to Lessor and licensed to do business in the State of Florida, and (iii) provide that said insurance shall not be canceled unless thirty (30) days prior written notice shall have been given to Lessor. Said policy or policies or certificates thereof shall be delivered to Lessor by Lessee upon commencement of the term of the Lease and upon each renewal of said insurance.

c. Tenant shall also be responsible for and shall maintain in force during the Term of the Lease, fire and extended coverage insurance for the replacement value of Tenant's property (including fixtures, leasehold improvements and equipment) located in the Premises.

d. All insurance required to be maintained by Tenant shall be on terms and conditions and with insurers reasonably acceptable to Landlord. Each policy maintained by Landlord or Tenant shall contain a waiver by the insurer of any rights of subrogation or indemnity or any other claim to which the insurer might otherwise be entitled and shall also contain an undertaking by the insurer that no material change adverse to Landlord or Tenant will be made, and the policy will not lapse or be canceled, except after not less than ten (10) days prior written notice to Landlord or Tenant of the intended change, lapse or cancellation. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord certificates or a letter of self-insurance reasonably acceptable to Landlord evidencing such insurance, at the commencement of the Lease Term and shall deliver certificates or a letter of self-insurance evidencing the renewal or continuation of such coverage on such date each year thereafter during the Lease Term.

e. Any contractors performing work on the Premises at the request of Tenant shall provide evidence of workers' compensation in the statutory amount as well as builder's risk insurance naming Landlord as an additional insured thereunder.

13. FIRE OR CASUALTY. If the Premises and/or the Building, or any part thereof, are damaged by fire or other casualty:

a. if such damage shall include damage to the Premises in such a manner so as to cause the Premises to be untenable for greater than ninety (90) days (as reasonably determined by Landlord), then, in that event, both Landlord and Tenant shall have the option to terminate this Lease, in accordance with subparagraph b, hereof.

b. in the event the Premises are not damaged in a manner giving rise to a termination option to Tenant pursuant to (a) above, but such damage (as reasonably determined by Landlord) shall include damage to the Building not caused by Tenant:

- (i) in such a manner so as to cause 30% or more of the Building to be untenable for greater than ninety (90) days; or
- (ii) in such a manner as to cause it to be commercially unreasonable to restore the Building to an architecturally sound unit, then, in either such event, Landlord shall have the option to terminate this Lease.

In the event this Lease is not terminated, Landlord shall repair and restore the Premises to substantially their condition immediately prior to the occurrence of the fire or other casualty. Election to terminate this Lease pursuant to this paragraph 13 shall be made by written notice from the electing party to the other party within thirty (30) days after the date of the fire or other casualty. In the event Landlord so repairs, such repairs shall be completed within a reasonable time. In the event that Landlord elects to repair, Rent shall abate during the period from the fire or other casualty until the Premises are available for Tenant's use and occupancy.

14. EMINENT DOMAIN. If all of the Premises are taken by eminent domain, this Lease shall terminate as of the date of such taking and Rent and Additional Rent will be paid through such date. If part of the Premises is taken by eminent domain so that in Landlord's reasonable determination, Tenant can no longer continue to use the remaining portion of the Premises for Tenant's use, or if more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Building located on the Premises is taken, Tenant shall have the option to terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Landlord within forty-five (45) days after the taking. In case of a partial taking, the Rent will be adjusted as of the date of such taking to the extent of Tenant's use of the premises. Tenant's right to recovery under this section shall be governed by applicable (federal or state) law.

15. EVENTS OF DEFAULT. Each of the following events shall be a default hereunder ("Event of Default") by Tenant and a breach of this Lease:

a. If Tenant shall fail to pay Landlord any installment of Rent or Additional Rent as set forth in Paragraph 3 above.

b. If Tenant, while in possession, shall file a petition in bankruptcy or insolvency or for reorganization under the Bankruptcy Code (the "Code") or insolvency law of any State, or shall voluntarily take advantage of any such law or Code by answer or otherwise, or if a corporation shall be dissolved or shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

c. If involuntary proceedings under the Code or insolvency law or any State, or for the dissolution of a corporation shall be instituted against Tenant, or if a receiver or trustee shall be appointed of all or substantially all of the property of Tenant, and such is not dismissed within sixty (60) days thereafter.

d. If this Lease or the interest of Tenant hereunder shall be transferred or assigned in a manner other than herein permitted.

e. If Tenant shall fail to keep and perform any other conditions, agreements, or covenants provided for in this Lease, for thirty (30) days after notice from Landlord that Tenant is in default thereunder; provided that a longer period is allowed to cure defaults where Tenant commences and diligently pursue same during such thirty (30) day period.

16. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Landlord may, in addition to any other remedy available to it at law or in equity, take any of the following actions:

a. Terminate this Lease, resume possession of the Premises for its own account, and recover from Tenant the difference between the rent specified in this Lease and the fair rental value of the Premises for the remainder of the Lease Term, reduced to present worth; or

b. Resume possession and release or rent the Premises for the remainder of the Lease Term for the account of Tenant and recover from Tenant:

- (i) at the end of the Lease Term; or
- (ii) from time to time; or
- (iii) at any time, the difference between the Rent specified in this Lease and the rent received or to be received on the releasing or renting; or

c. Enforce by distress, foreclosure, or otherwise, Landlord's lien against Tenant's property found upon or off the Premises.

With reservation of all rights under Article VII, Section 10, Pledging Credit, Florida Constitution (1968), and further subject to conditions and limitations set forth in Fla. Stat. Sec. 768.28 (2019), Tenant agrees to pay all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by Landlord in enforcing Tenant's obligations under this Lease or resulting from Tenant's default under this Lease. Landlord, in the event of repossession of Premises, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to re-let same, but shall not be required to let the Premises with any preference over other space Landlord may then have available for lease.

17. SUBORDINATION. This Lease and the rights of Tenant hereunder are subject and subordinate and inferior to the lien, terms and conditions of any mortgage now or hereafter encumbering the Premises. Tenant agrees to execute and deliver such instruments to evidence subordination, certificates of estoppel, and certificates as to the status of the Lease as Landlord may request, provided Tenant receives a non-disturbance agreement which recognizes its right to quiet enjoyment upon its performance of its obligations under this Lease. Tenant agrees to attorn to any mortgagee or other successor landlord at the option of such mortgagee or successor landlord.

18. INDEMNIFICATION.

By Tenant. With reservation of all rights under Article VII, Section 10, Pledging Credit, Florida Constitution (1968), and further subject to conditions and limitations set forth in Fla. Stat. Sec. 768.28 (2019), Tenant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Landlord from and against any and all liabilities, claims, demands, costs, and expenses of every kind and nature, including those arising from any injury or damage to any person (including death), property or business:

- (i) sustained in or about the Premises and resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant, its employees, agents, servants, invitees, licensees, or subtenants;
- (iii) resulting from the storage, disposal, or leakage by Tenant, its employees, agents, servants, invitees, licensees or subtenants of any hazardous substances on or about the Premises, or
- (iii) resulting from the failure of Tenant to perform its obligations under this Lease; provided however, Tenant's obligations under this paragraph shall not apply to injury or damage resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord.

The indemnity obligation of Tenant relating to hazardous substances shall survive the termination or expiration of the Lease Term.

b. By Landlord. Landlord agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Tenant from and against any and all liabilities, claims, demands, costs, and expenses of every kind and nature (including attorney's fees), including those arising from any injury or damage to any person (including death), property or business:

- (i) sustained in or about the Premises and resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, its employees, agents, servants, or contractors;
- (ii) resulting from the storage, disposal, or leakage by Landlord, its employees, agents, servants, invitees, licensees or subtenants of any hazardous substances on or about the Premises, or
- (iii) resulting from the grossly negligent failure of Landlord to perform its obligations under this Lease;

c. Limitations on Landlord's Indemnity.

- (i) Provided, however, Landlord's obligations under this paragraph shall not apply to injury or damage resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant, its employees, agents, servants, invitees, licensees or subtenants.
- (ii) In no event shall Landlord be deemed to indemnify Tenant from the actions or inactions of other tenants of the building in which the Premises are located or their respective employees, agents, servants, invitees, licensees, or subtenants.

d. Landlord shall have no duty to perform any maintenance, repair or replacement activity except to the extent the same (1) is specifically designated herein as a Landlord Repair; and (2) Tenant has provided Landlord notice of the need to perform the same or the principals of Landlord have actual knowledge of the same.

e. Notwithstanding anything in this Lease to the contrary, neither Landlord nor any principal or member thereof shall have personal liability hereunder and Tenant shall look solely to the estate, assets, and property of Landlord in the land and improvements comprising the Building in which the Premises are located for the collection of any judgment or other judicial process arising out of or related to any default or breach by Landlord under this Lease or any matter as to which Landlord has indemnified Tenant hereunder, and no other assets of Landlord shall be subject to levy, execution or other procedures for the satisfaction of any remedies of Tenant.

19. LIENS. With reservation of all rights under Article VII, Section 10, Pledging Credit, Florida Constitution (1968), and further subject to conditions and limitations set forth in Fla. Stat. Sec. 768.28 (2019), Tenant agrees that it will pay all liens of contractors, subcontractors, mechanics, laborers, and materialmen, and will indemnify Landlord against all expenses, costs, charges, and attorney's fees reasonably incurred in connection with the defense of any suit in discharging the Premises or any part thereof from any liens, judgments, or encumbrances caused or suffered by Tenant. In the event any such lien shall be made or filed, Tenant shall bond against or discharge the same within ten (10) days after Tenant receives notice that the same has been made or filed. It is understood and agreed between the parties hereto that the expenses, costs and charges referred to above shall be considered as Rent due. The interest of Landlord in the real property and the Building in which the Premises are located shall not be subject to liens for improvements by Tenant, and the parties agree to execute a memorandum confirming such exemption from lien in recordable form at Landlord's request.

20. USE PERMITTED; EXCLUSIVITY. The Premises shall be used for no purposes other than as a medical office, together with associated technical specialists, without prior consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

21. SIGNS. Tenant shall not attach any signs to the Premises, or place any lettering on glass windows, unless such signs and such lettering are approved in advance by Landlord in writing, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed. Landlord will, at Tenant's expense, provide signage on the street monument sign, building directory and on the office Premises entry door.

22. PARKING. Except for designated, reserved spaces (including tenant and visitor/patient spaces), all other parking areas with the common area will be operated by Landlord on a non-exclusive basis. Employees and other staff of Tenant are to utilize the parking areas located to the south of the Building or as otherwise designated by Landlord. Currently, parking spaces in the south parking area are assigned. Tenant has the right to use the six (6) parking spaces assigned to its suite. Should there be unassigned parking spaces, each user of the south parking area will have the right to park in any available space on a first come-first served basis unless such space is specifically designated or reserved by Landlord or designated for handicapped parking.
