Applicant hereby expresses its willingness to enter into this Agreement with Applicant's recovery from the City for any damage action for breach of contract or for any action or claim arising from this Agreement to be limited to a maximum amount of $100.00.

Nothing contained in this paragraph or elsewhere in this Agreement is in any way intended to be a waiver of the limitation placed upon City's liability as set forth in Article 768.28, Florida Statutes.

The Commission on the Status of Women, established in 1946, was the first of its kind. It was created by the United Nations to address the needs and concerns of women worldwide. The Commission has since become a key body in the development of international law and policy related to women's rights. It has held numerous conferences and has produced a wealth of reports and recommendations that have shaped the global discourse on gender equality.

In addition to its work on women's rights, the Commission has also been instrumental in the development of the United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW). This landmark treaty, adopted in 1979, is the only international human rights treaty that focuses specifically on the rights of women.
