Recommendation

It is recommended that the City Commission approve a First Amendment to the Interlocal Agreement, in substantially the form attached, between Broward County and the City of Fort Lauderdale for a Joint Government Center Campus.

Background

At a meeting of the Unified Direct Procurement Authority (“UDPA”) held on December 10, 2019, members of the Broward County Board of Commissioners and the City Commission reached a consensus to amend the Interlocal Agreement Between Broward County and the City of Fort Lauderdale for a Joint Government Center Campus (ILA) to expand the ILA’s scope. The proposed amendment would expand the authority of the UDPA to consider all procurement matters related to the proposed Joint Government Center Campus, including but not limited to, those related to design, construction, and review of proposals received from third parties, including solicited and unsolicited proposals.
