3. Title and Survey. City shall obtain an owner's title insurance commitment, together with legible copies of all exceptions to coverage reflected therein, issued by a title insurance company acceptable to City, agreeing to issue to the City upon the recording of the Special Warranty Deed to the Real Property, an owner's title insurance policy in the amount of the Purchase Price, insuring the marketability of the fee title of the City to the Real Property, subject only to the those exceptions to the title of the Property together with any other title matters that may be accepted in writing by the City ("Permitted Exceptions"). The cost of said title insurance commitment and title insurance policy and any premium therefor shall be borne by Purchaser, subject to Seller's contribution therefor as provided in Section 10.1 hereinbelow.

3.1. The City shall have until the earlier of (i) thirty (30) days after receipt of the title insurance commitment, or (ii) the end of the Inspection Period, whichever is first, in which to review same. In the event the title insurance commitment shall show as an exception any matter other than the Permitted Exceptions, City shall notify Seller of City's objection thereto, and Seller shall have five (5) business days after receipt of Purchaser's notice to notify Purchaser in writing whether Seller elects to undertake commercially reasonable efforts to cure Purchaser's title objections, excluding, however, any obligation for bringing suit, to remove such exception(s). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Seller has no obligations to undertake any curative action. If Seller either fails to timely deliver its election notice, or elects not to cure or remove any of Purchaser's objections within Seller's 5-business day response period to Purchaser's reasonable satisfaction, Purchaser may (as its sole and exclusive remedy) terminate this Agreement by delivering notice to Seller prior to expiration of the Inspection Period; in which event, the Escrow Deposit will be returned to Purchaser and neither party shall have any obligations hereunder except those obligations which are specifically stated herein to survive the termination hereof. If Seller elects to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure one or more of Purchaser's objections, Seller shall be entitled to thirty (30) days from the date of notification by City (with adjournment of the Closing Date, if necessary) within which to cure such defects or to make arrangements with the title insurer for deletion of any such title defects from the title insurance commitment without the inclusion of any additional exceptions to coverage. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller shall have the option of discharging any such matters at closing with the closing proceeds. If the defect(s) shall not have been so cured or removed from the title insurance commitment by endorsement thereto at the termination of the said thirty (30) day period, City shall have the option of (as its sole and exclusive remedy): (a) accepting title to the Property as it then exists; or (b) terminating this Agreement, by giving written notice thereof to Seller; in which event, the Escrow Deposit will be returned to Purchaser and neither party shall have any obligations hereunder except those obligations which are specifically stated herein to survive the termination hereof.

3.2. City may request, prior to the Closing, an endorsement of the title insurance commitment making it effective to within fifteen (15) days of the Closing Date. At Closing, Seller shall execute a customary closing affidavit in form sufficient to permit the title insurer to delete any exceptions for: (a) any rights or claims of parties in possession not shown by the public records; (b) encroachments, overlaps, boundary line disputes and any other matters which would be disclosed by an accurate survey and inspection of the Property (provided City obtains a survey in accordance with Section 4 hereof); (c) easements or claims of easement not shown by the public records (provided City obtains a survey as provided herein); (d) any lien, or right to a lien, for services, labor or material heretofore or hereinafter furnished, imposed by law and not shown by the public records; (e) taxes for the year of Closing and all prior years, and taxes or special assessments which are not shown as existing liens by the public records; and (f) matters arising or attaching subsequent to the effective date of the title insurance commitment but before the acquisition of record of title to the Property by the City and not caused or approved in advance by City.

4. Survey. City shall have the right, prior to expiration of the Inspection Period, to obtain a current survey of the Real Property and all improvements thereon. Said survey shall be prepared in accordance with the minimum technical standards for surveys within the State of Florida. If the survey reveals any encroachments, overlaps, boundary disputes, or other defects, or any matters other than the Permitted Exceptions, the same shall be treated as title defects as described in Section 3 of this Agreement, and City shall have the same rights and remedies as set forth therein.

5. Inspections. Seller and Purchaser hereby acknowledge that as of the date of the execution of this Agreement, Purchaser has not yet had an opportunity to complete its required due diligence and to fully review and evaluate this transaction. In the event such Notice of Termination is delivered on or before 5:00 p.m. on the expiration of the Inspection Period, the parties shall be released from all further obligations each to the other under this Agreement, except those obligations which are specifically stated herein to survive the termination hereof. Purchaser, its agents, employees and representatives shall have access to the Property at all times subsequent to the Effective Date and during the Inspection Period or earlier termination of this Agreement, with full right to: (a) inspect the Property, and (b) to conduct any and all inspections, investigations and tests thereon, including, but not limited to, soil borings and hazardous waste studies, and to make such other examinations with respect thereto as Purchaser, its counsel, licensed engineers, surveyors, appraisers, or other representative may deem reasonably necessary ("Due Diligence Investigations"). Purchaser shall remove or bond any lien of any type which attaches to the Property by virtue of any of Purchaser's Due Diligence Investigations. Upon completion of any such Due Diligence Investigations, Purchaser shall restore any damage to the Property caused by Purchaser's Due Diligence Investigations. Purchaser hereby indemnifies and holds Seller harmless, subject to the limitations set forth under Section 768.28 Florida Statutes, from all loss, cost or expense, resulting from Purchaser's Due Diligence Investigations in connection with the Property. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Purchaser shall not indemnify or hold Seller harmless with respect to any "Hazardous Substance" (as hereinafter defined), which it finds in connection with its Due Diligence Investigations of the Property. Purchaser shall not be required to remove, remediate, dispose or otherwise deal with any samplings derived from the Property which it finds in connection with its Due Diligence Investigations of the Property. Within five (5) days of the Effective Date, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser hard-copies of all Documents, if any, which Seller or its agents have in their possession for Purchaser's review.
