Since there will be no stage and patrons will remain in their seats, your plan is approved by the County to move forward.

Will there be a dance floor? One of the things that Fishtales did was to replace the dance floor with socially distanced chairs so that patrons could sit and watch the band without gathering in large crowds. Thoughts?

We have a uniformed FLPD officer on duty to assist with any issues that might arise

my management has completed crowd management courses

we will make announcements on a regular basis

we will have servers for all the tables to insure that no unnecessary mingling

thank you

Debbie,

I wanted to follow back up about the event. The live music would seem to give an opportunity for patrons to gather in front of the stage. We're concerned that this opportunity would make it difficult for you and your staff to enforce your plan, especially relating to facial coverings and social distancing. Since we are working under the guise of "Establishments Serving Food or Alcohol" under the Comprehensive Emergency Order, what steps will be taken if patrons refuse to abide by your plan specifically relating to facial coverings, social distancing, and the requirement that patrons sit down while consuming food or drink.

Let me know if you would like to discuss.

Hi Marty,

Happy New Year! I was just checking to see if you need anything else Shuck N Dive for Mardi Gras in February? Everything has been submitted to the City and the Fees have been paid. Please let me know.

Thank you

Debbie
