Shannon Thomas

Shannon Thomas, born and raised in Miami, Florida, earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Supervision and Management from Miami Dade College in Miami, Florida. She worked as an Eligibility Interviewer for Miami-Dade County for eight (8) years until she resigned to pursue her dream as an entrepreneur.

Mrs. Thomas developed a love for being an entrepreneur at an early age. As a teenager, she began working in the community, assisting her mother with the family's catering service. During those early years, she shaped her entrepreneurial skills and found the importance of giving back to the community.

In 2011 Shannon founded GRL Investment Group, a catering and mobile concession Florida Limited Liability Corporation. In 2016, she founded Grillin & Chillin, a food trailer with featured food items such as the Mac Burger, Latin-Dog, Miami Cheese Steak and many other amazing concession food items. In 2017, she founded Fry Head, a seasoned fry company. While visible in the community, the company hires and mentors high school students, giving students an opportunity to earn income while still in high school or college. Miami Slush, Grillin & Chillin, and Fry Head are sponsors of the Boys and Girls Club, Miami Northwestern Senior High Booster Club, Miami Central Senior High Booster Club, Coral Gables Senior High Booster Club, Harbor House, and a few other organizations in Miami-Dade. Every year Miami Slush hosts their annual food drive in support of the homeless community in Miami-Dade. Since its initial launch, the brands have expanded to several locations throughout Miami-Dade County and continues to grow.

Shannon is married to Rashad Thomas and they're the proud parents of three boys, Rashad Jr., Rashaun and Rasheem Thomas. Like their parents, these young men are being taught the values of hard work, sacrifice and giving back to the community. Shannon is driven by a provision for her family and leaving a legacy for the next generation.

This young entrepreneur exemplifies the meaning of a wife and mother while living the American Dream of being able to provide for her family while enriching the lives of others.
