Dear Evaluation Committee,

Ultimate Bakery and Pastry Inc. (ULTIMATE) is an A rated family owned and operated independent Food Service Contractor and is pleased to submit its proposal in response to Solicitation 12564-515 for Concession operations at Holiday Park. As you may know, our company has a great deal of experience in running food service operations in wide variety of settings. In the past 30 years, through our contracts with the Broward County Sheriff's Office, City of Ft. Lauderdale, City of Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens, West Palm Beach and City of Miami, our family's work force has served a large customer base. For example, during Hurricane Wilma and Hurricane Katrina (2005) my children Esther and David (Esther & David Company) worked shoulder to shoulder with BSO and FTPD officers at indoor and outdoor setups. My daughter's most recent business (Pelican Park Concessions in Sunny Isles Beach) was a direct result of the unique experience she had growing up in this industry. I, Peter Torocsik, am a European born baker and pastry chef, and along with my wife, Lola, my children David, Peter Jr, Robert and Esther (all of whom are trained service professionals), together we have 150 years of experience in the restaurant business, institutional cooking, baking and partnering with government agencies of different sized food concessions. We understand that the City of Ft. Lauderdale wants not only friendly, quality service at reasonable prices but also a very well planned "concession-style" menu. These basics have been the keys to our success in all our endeavors. Our family is proud to say that our costumers recommend us to their friends, allowing us to grow, continuing to do what we love and to improve year after year. We would like to take this opportunity to introduce ourselves to you, in hopes that we have the pleasure of getting to know you and your community in the coming months.

Truly Yours,

Peter Torocsik

SCOPE OF WORK

Management of Ultimate Bakery and Pastry Inc. ("Ultimate") understands the intent of Solicitation 12564-515 very well: The City of Ft. Lauderdale ("City") is looking for a family friendly operator to provide high quality food service at reasonable prices to Holiday Park patrons while assuring revenue to the City. Ultimate acknowledges that the City wants the vendor to share the workload of the Concession stand with the MOU groups for fundraising. In this situation, Ultimate is willing to pay the agreed upon percent of gross income to the volunteer groups.

We know the City's goal is to find the most experienced management team possible for the community. Indoor and outdoor cooking, baking, afterschool foodservice, vending services, and emergency Hurricane foodservice are just a few of Ultimate's know-hows when operating a profitable food and beverage service company of the highest quality. Our motto is simple, and it is what has brought us success in the past 30 years.

-WE LOVE WHAT WE DO AND IT SHOWS IN THE WAY WE WORK

In preparation for this solicitation, Ultimate has completed extensive site inspections by visiting Holiday Park and its concession stand in order to consider the potential business opportunity and workload involved. While conducting the site inspections, Ultimate took into careful consideration its capacity for ongoing and reliable, quality service. Upon Ultimate's overall evaluation, it is confident it has all the resources and foodservice technology to significantly improve the quality of service from past years. Ultimate has state licensed and trained staff as well as state-of-the-art equipment ready to offer everything from vending machines services to high-level special event caterings. Another special quality that we are proud to share is our passion for customer service and treating all of our customers like family. Holiday Park's guests would receive only the highest level of personalized attention at each visit to the Concession Stand.

The uniquely large size of Holiday Park is a professional aspect that requires specialized attention and Ultimate possesses the skills to satisfy the demands whether they be for mass weekend turnouts or be it only local park patron visits. In any case, Ultimate plans to be licensed and operational within 30 days of award and offer the park guests friendly and delicious food service all year round. It is with great excitement that Ultimate submits its proposal for Concessionaire Management Services at Holiday Park.

To whom it may concern,

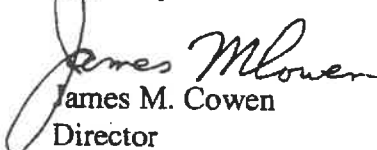

It is with pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Peter and Judith Tauszik Torocsik owners of the Ultimate Catering Company (formerly the Esther & David Company). For the past 8 years, I have been the Parks & Recreation Director of the City of Parkland. During those years, I have had the pleasure of working with this company who has been providing excellent food and beverage services in all of our Parks. I found Judith and Peter to be tireless workers who were never satisfied with the status quo. Rather, they constantly looked for ways to improve things.

Especially important, is their work ethic, loyalty, commitment, and high standards. They are always cheerful, cooperative, and willing to help each of our customers. This takes considerable ability to know how to talk and relate to kids of all ages and their parents. Sometimes customers have special food requirements due to allergies, religious requirements, dislikes, and vegetarian preferences. They handle everyone with unbelievable skill.

Our concession stands are considered by the Department of Health as being one of the cleanest, safest, and best organized in the county. They offer more than just what is in their contract. Year after year, they organize and provide their food service during our biggest events such as Parkland Days, Concerts and many Tournaments as well. They also volunteer to help and donate beverages during such events as Build-a-Park, the City's Egg Hunt and July 4th celebration, which are both greatly appreciated.

Indeed, anyone fortunate enough to have the Ultimate Catering Company as a Foodservice Provider should be very grateful. Having been a Parks & Recreation Director for 15 years, I can honestly say that I do not lightly give out such an outstanding reference. Please feel free to contact me if you require any additional information at (954) 757-1909.

Dear Peter :

On behalf of the City of West Palm Beach and the thousands of patrons who joined us for the One Year Anniversary of the Waterfront at the Super Charged Celebration, I want to thank you for your generous support of the event and West Palm Beach as a whole. In these difficult times, it is only with the support of sponsors and donors such as yourself that we are able to offer the quantity and quality of programming that we do.

Through your support and that of others, we were able to offer a super cars exhibit in the Lake Pavilion, fireworks, a super hero kids' area, live musical performances including the Spinners and Motowners, along several with local bands, a chili cook-off, a dance party and the original Batmobile was on site. An estimated 40,000 youngsters, teens, adults and seniors took part in the festivities.

Downtown businesses reaped the benefits of the event as well, enjoying the increased crowds and business, as well as the community spirit that such events are always sure to develop. We have received very positive responses from the public in regards to the event, a clear reflection of what we can produce when we all pull together.

Thank you again for your willingness to support the City of West Palm Beach and for your part in making West Palm Beach a great place to live!

THE NEWS

Local restaurant attracts national TV coverage

Those who appreciate good food are telling each other about the Via Pollo Bakery & Grill in the Oaks Plaza on Glades Rd. In just two months, the business has gained a reputation for healthy home cooking at reasonable prices. But this overnight sensation didn't happen overnight.

Owners Judy and Peter have over 20 years experience in restaurants. Judy grew up working in her parents' restaurant. As a little girl, she began preparing family recipes and learning what customers liked. Peter, a baker and chef, became famous for his strudels and Russian coffee cake. Together, they operated a culinary school and owned restaurants in Hungary before coming to the U.S.

Since arriving in the States, they have managed the kitchen for a famous diet summer camp in the Catskills. Not only do they cook, but they teach young people how to eat healthier. Clients often lose as much as 50 pounds in nine weeks at the camp. Their success has attracted the attention of European television shows and American TV news magazines like ABC's "20/20."

That publicity brought offers to manage other restaurants and country clubs. But Judy and Peter turned down the offers. They wanted to open a smaller, informal, family-owned place to eat. "We wanted to open a place for people who aren't on special diets. And we wanted to be smaller so we could get to know our customers and just grow the business slowly, by word-of-mouth," said Judy.

That approach is working well. During their first two months, Judy estimates they have offered over 100 different dishes. "We let the customers decide what they like best. Some of the customers' favorites so far have been the Chicken Lasagna, the Spinach Loaf over fettucini, and the Chicken Paprikash with Spetzels."

Judy offers this recipe as a sample of the cooking you won't find anywhere else:

CHICKEN AND NOODLE OMELETTE

2 cups cooked chicken (turkey leftovers may be substituted)

4 eggs, lightly beaten

2-3 tbsp butter

2 tbsp minced parsley

chicken broth

salt and pepper to taste

Boil noodles in chicken broth until just cooked (al dente). Drain. Combine noodles, chicken eggs, salt, pepper. Blend lightly. Melt butter in a skillet. Add noodle mixture and cook over low heat about 30 minutes, until the omelette is set. Put under the broiler one minute until top is browned. Unmold on a heated serving dish, sprinkle with parsley. Serve.

Via Pollo also has a full bakery serving delicious bagels, breads, rolls, doughnuts and pastries made fresh. With food like this, and daily "Taste of Europe" specials, (all at prices under $5!), Judy and Peter's place won't remain a well-kept secret for very long. You may want to discover the Via Pollo now, and avoid the rush later.

July 5, 2021

Dear Evaluation Committee,

Ultimate Bakery and Pastry Inc. (ULTIMATE) is an A rated family owned and operated independent Food Service Contractor and is pleased to submit its proposal in response to Solicitation 12564-515 for Concession operations at Holiday Park. As you may know, our company has a great deal of experience in running food service operations in wide variety of settings. In the past 30 years, through our contracts with the Broward County Sheriff's Office, City of Ft. Lauderdale, City of Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens, West Palm Beach and City of Miami, our family's work force has served a large customer base. For example, during Hurricane Wilma and Hurricane Katrina (2005) my children Esther and David (Esther & David Company) worked shoulder to shoulder with BSO and FTPD officers at indoor and outdoor setups. My daughter's most recent business (Pelican Park Concessions in Sunny Isles Beach) was a direct result of the unique experience she had growing up in this industry. I, Peter Torocsik, am a European born baker and pastry chef, and along with my wife, Lola, my children David, Peter Jr, Robert and Esther (all of whom are trained service professionals), together we have 150 years of experience in the restaurant business, institutional cooking, baking and partnering with government agencies of different sized food concessions. We understand that the City of Ft. Lauderdale wants not only friendly, quality service at reasonable prices but also a very well planned "concession-style" menu. These basics have been the keys to our success in all our endeavors. Our family is proud to say that our costumers recommend us to their friends, allowing us to grow, continuing to do what we love and to improve year after year. We would like to take this opportunity to introduce ourselves to you, in hopes that we have the pleasure of getting to know you and your community in the coming months.

Truly Yours,

Peter Torocsik

SCOPE OF WORK

Management of Ultimate Bakery and Pastry Inc. ("Ultimate") understands the intent of Solicitation 12564-515 very well: The City of Ft. Lauderdale ("City") is looking for a family friendly operator to provide high quality food service at reasonable prices to Holiday Park patrons while assuring revenue to the City. Ultimate acknowledges that the City wants the vendor to share the workload of the Concession stand with the MOU groups for fundraising. In this situation, Ultimate is willing to pay the agreed upon percent of gross income to the volunteer groups.

We know the City's goal is to find the most experienced management team possible for the community. Indoor and outdoor cooking, baking, afterschool foodservice, vending services, and emergency Hurricane foodservice are just a few of Ultimate's know-hows when operating a profitable food and beverage service company of the highest quality. Our motto is simple, and it is what has brought us success in the past 30 years.

-WE LOVE WHAT WE DO AND IT SHOWS IN THE WAY WE WORK

In preparation for this solicitation, Ultimate has completed extensive site inspections by visiting Holiday Park and its concession stand in order to consider the potential business opportunity and workload involved. While conducting the site inspections, Ultimate took into careful consideration its capacity for ongoing and reliable, quality service. Upon Ultimate's overall evaluation, it is confident it has all the resources and foodservice technology to significantly improve the quality of service from past years. Ultimate has state licensed and trained staff as well as state-of-the-art equipment ready to offer everything from vending machines services to high-level special event caterings. Another special quality that we are proud to share is our passion for customer service and treating all of our customers like family. Holiday Park's guests would receive only the highest level of personalized attention at each visit to the Concession Stand.

The uniquely large size of Holiday Park is a professional aspect that requires specialized attention and Ultimate possesses the skills to satisfy the demands whether they be for mass weekend turnouts or be it only local park patron visits. In any case, Ultimate plans to be licensed and operational within 30 days of award and offer the park guests friendly and delicious food service all year round. It is with great excitement that Ultimate submits its proposal for Concessionaire Management Services at Holiday Park.

To whom it may concern,

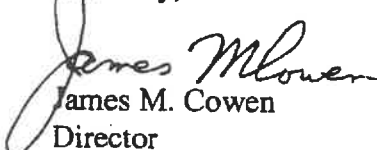

It is with pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Peter and Judith Tauszik Torocsik owners of the Ultimate Catering Company (formerly the Esther & David Company). For the past 8 years, I have been the Parks & Recreation Director of the City of Parkland. During those years, I have had the pleasure of working with this company who has been providing excellent food and beverage services in all of our Parks. I found Judith and Peter to be tireless workers who were never satisfied with the status quo. Rather, they constantly looked for ways to improve things.

Especially important, is their work ethic, loyalty, commitment, and high standards. They are always cheerful, cooperative, and willing to help each of our customers. This takes considerable ability to know how to talk and relate to kids of all ages and their parents. Sometimes customers have special food requirements due to allergies, religious requirements, dislikes, and vegetarian preferences. They handle everyone with unbelievable skill.

Our concession stands are considered by the Department of Health as being one of the cleanest, safest, and best organized in the county. They offer more than just what is in their contract. Year after year, they organize and provide their food service during our biggest events such as Parkland Days, Concerts and many Tournaments as well. They also volunteer to help and donate beverages during such events as Build-a-Park, the City's Egg Hunt and July 4th celebration, which are both greatly appreciated.

Indeed, anyone fortunate enough to have the Ultimate Catering Company as a Foodservice Provider should be very grateful. Having been a Parks & Recreation Director for 15 years, I can honestly say that I do not lightly give out such an outstanding reference. Please feel free to contact me if you require any additional information at (954) 757-1909.

Sincerely,

The City of West Palm Beach

"The Capital City of the Palm Beaches"

2/22/11

Dear Peter :

On behalf of the City of West Palm Beach and the thousands of patrons who joined us for the One Year Anniversary of the Waterfront at the Super Charged Celebration, I want to thank you for your generous support of the event and West Palm Beach as a whole. In these difficult times, it is only with the support of sponsors and donors such as yourself that we are able to offer the quantity and quality of programming that we do.

Through your support and that of others, we were able to offer a super cars exhibit in the Lake Pavilion, fireworks, a super hero kids' area, live musical performances including the Spinners and Motowners, along several with local bands, a chili cook-off, a dance party and the original Batmobile was on site. An estimated 40,000 youngsters, teens, adults and seniors took part in the festivities.

Downtown businesses reaped the benefits of the event as well, enjoying the increased crowds and business, as well as the community spirit that such events are always sure to develop. We have received very positive responses from the public in regards to the event, a clear reflection of what we can produce when we all pull together.

Thank you again for your willingness to support the City of West Palm Beach and for your part in making West Palm Beach a great place to live!

Sincerely,

THE NEWS

Local restaurant attracts national TV coverage

Those who appreciate good food are telling each other about the Via Pollo Bakery & Grill in the Oaks Plaza on Glades Rd. In just two months, the business has gained a reputation for healthy home cooking at reasonable prices. But this overnight sensation didn't happen overnight.

Owners Judy and Peter have over 20 years experience in restaurants. Judy grew up working in her parents' restaurant. As a little girl, she began preparing family recipes and learning what customers liked. Peter, a baker and chef, became famous for his strudel and Russian coffee cake. Together, they operated a culinary school and owned restaurants in Hungary before coming to the U.S.

Since arriving in the States, they have managed the kitchen for a famous diet summer camp in the Catskills. Not only do they cook, but they teach young people how to eat healthier. Clients often lose as much as 50 pounds in nine weeks at the camp. Their success has attracted the attention of European television shows and American TV news magazines like ABC's "20/20."

That publicity brought offers to manage other restaurants and country clubs. But Judy and Peter turned down the offers. They wanted to open a smaller, informal, family-owned place to eat. "We wanted to open a place for people who aren't on special diets. And we wanted to be smaller so we could get to know our customers and just grow the business slowly, by word-of-mouth," said Judy.

That approach is working well. During their first two months, Judy estimates they have offered over 100 different dishes. "We let the customers decide what they like best. Some of the customers' favorites so far have been the Chicken Lasagna, the Spinach Loaf over fettucini, and the Chicken Paprikash with Spetzels."

Judy offers this recipe as a sample of the cooking you won't find anywhere else:

CHICKEN AND NOODLE OMELETTE

2 cups cooked chicken (turkey leftovers may be substituted)

4 eggs, lightly beaten

2-3 tbsp butter

2 tbsp minced parsley

chicken broth

salt and pepper to taste

Boil noodles in chicken broth until just cooked (al dente). Drain. Combine noodles, chicken, eggs, salt, pepper. Blend lightly. Melt butter in a skillet. Add noodle mixture and cook over low heat about 30 minutes, until the omelette is set. Put under the broiler one minute until top is browned. Unmold on a heated serving dish, sprinkle with parsley. Serve.

Via Pollo also has a full bakery serving delicious bagels, breads, rolls, doughnuts and pastries made fresh. With food like this, and daily "Taste of Europe" specials, (all at prices under $5!), Judy and Peter's place won't remain a well-kept secret for very long. You may want to discover the Via Pollo now, and avoid the rush later.
